

Learn the history of maple sugaring — from its Native American beginnings to present day commercial operations

Don't Forget to Join Our Pancake Breakfast!

*9 am to 2 pm in the historic barn
$6 for adults, $4 for children*

Maple Sugar Festival

Saturday March 6, 2010
9 am-2 pm
FREE admission

John James Audubon Center
at Mill Grove
1201 Pawlings Road
Audubon, PA

For information phone:
610-666-5593 x109

2010 Public Event Schedule

February 27th
9 am – 1 pm

Trail Volunteer Day

Come spend the day helping us maintain our beautiful hiking trails at Mill Grove.

March 6th
9 am – 2 pm

Maple Sugar Festival

March 20th
9 am – 1 pm

Riparian Revegetation Day

Join us as we help a stream come back to life! This day includes trash clean-up, invasive plant removal, and native vegetation plantings along Mine Run.

April 17th –
April 25th
1 pm – 4 pm

6th Annual Art Show: “Drawn From Nature”

Come see juried art shown from artists across the region.

May 1st
9 am – 1 pm

Earth Day / Arbor Day Event

Come join us as we celebrate both Earth Day and Arbor Day by giving back to nature. We will be planting trees throughout Mill Grove.

May 15th
9 am – 1 pm

Four Seasons Native Garden Day

Want to know how you can attract birds and other wildlife in your backyard? Join us as we put in a native plant garden that supports wildlife throughout the four seasons of the year!