

Audubon Hawk Watch

at Waggoner's Gap

This is private property owned by the National Audubon Society.

Visitors are welcome during daylight hours only (sunrise to sunset).

If you are here after dark, you are trespassing.

Additionally, this site has a boulder field and is home to venomous snakes, both of which pose exceptional danger in the dark.

Your safety is at risk if you are here after sunset.

NOTE: Due to increase vandalism, surveillance and security is being increased. Smile! 😊

Please adhere to the following rules:

- No fires allowed for any reason.
- No smoking.
- No littering. Take your trash with you.
- No glass other than binoculars.
- This is a NO DRONE ZONE.
- No lewd or obnoxious behavior.
- Use of alcohol, firearms or drugs on this property is prohibited.
- Pets must be on a leash.
- Be respectful of others using this property. It is a wildlife sanctuary, education facility and research station. You will be asked to leave if you are causing a problem for others.

Pa. Crimes Code will be enforced for above violations, including:

§ 3304. Criminal mischief

§ 3503. Criminal trespass
